Nambiti Hills Private Game Lodge

If you dream of an intimate wedding in Big Five country, the newly opened Nambiti Hills near Ladysmith is as romantic as it gets. Located in the southern part of Nambiti Game Reserve, the lodge has only eight luxury suites and a honeymoon suite so you can count on privacy and the prerequisite pampering that newlyweds deserve. Carefully considered interiors combine soothing neutrals and tactile patterns, creating homely luxury. Each suite has a private deck and a gorgeous king-sized bed draped in mosquito netting. When it's all over and your head is still spinning with happy memories, you can share your first breakfast as Mr and Mrs at the waterfall or at a private table in the bush. Nambiti will treat honeymooners to a romantic turndown, complimentary bottle of sparkling wine and an upgrade to the honeymoon suite, subject to availability. Rates from R3 499 pp per night, including breakfast, lunch and dinner daily, all tea, coffee and snacks, all beverages, local wines and soft drinks, two game drives per day and walking safaris.
